

Newsletter 5
10th November 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope this newsletter finds you well. It's been a busy start to Term 2.

Last Friday the planetarium visited Oak class (Y5/6) and Rowan class (Y1/2) and the children had a fantastic time. The children shared their learning with the lady who ran the visit, and she was incredibly impressed with the knowledge of the children. They also asked some really interesting questions to further their own knowledge.

Remembrance Service

The whole school headed through the village in glorious sunshine this morning to participate in a special service of Remembrance at All Saints church. The children were impeccably behaved and showed consideration and respect throughout the service.

A huge thank you to Mr Beverley for taking the service and to the accompanying musicians leading us into our minute of silence with the Last Post.

'Lest we forget'.

Kidz Kitchen made some lovely Remembrance buns for lunches today.

School Office requests

Please can parents ensure they give brief details of the reason for their child's absence when leaving answerphone messages. This is so we can monitor the reasons and identify any potential issues i.e. sickness bugs doing the rounds. We have staff members and family members where potential illnesses need to be communicated to the adults, so please do keep us informed. Thank you.

ParentPay is set up to take payments for Aladdin-if children would like an ice cream it has to be paid by 17th November at the latest. ParentPay is also accepting payments for swimming lessons (Maple class). Please see letter on Dojo.

Children in Need

Donations for spotty clothing and non-uniform can only be made via ParentPay. The purchase of cakes (50p each) and purchase of badges/hair bobbles (see picture) is £1 and cash only.

Two of our kind volunteers, Mrs Beverley and Mrs Rothwell-Jackson have been busy knitting Pudsey badges and hair ties. If your child would like one for Children in Need day next Friday 17th November, they may be purchased from the school office beforehand from Monday or on the day at break time for £1 each.
