

Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope this newsletter finds you well and getting in the Christmas spirit. Christmas has well and truly arrived at Ingham school with our Christmas sock day, our Christmas decoration competition and the sound of Christmas songs ringing out through the corridor as Key Stage 1 get ready for their Christmas performance next week.

There were so many excellent entries into the Christmas decoration competition, and everyone got to hang their decoration or a bauble on the Christmas tree, kindly donated by Fillingham Christmas Trees. Our tree looks perfect in the library.

Yesterday all children from Y2 to Y6 took part in an Online safety workshop hosted by Lincolnshire Stay Safe partnership. These workshops were really practical and informative and reinforced the message about being safe online. Please do talk to your children about what they learnt in the workshops. They also talked to the children about the CEOP Education \(thinkuknow.co.uk\) website. There are activities for all age groups and a parent page too-take a look.

Aladdin

On Wednesday the whole school visited the New Theatre Royal to watch the pantomime. The children behaved impeccably and were a credit to the school. The pantomime was very funny and the children (and staff!) loved it!

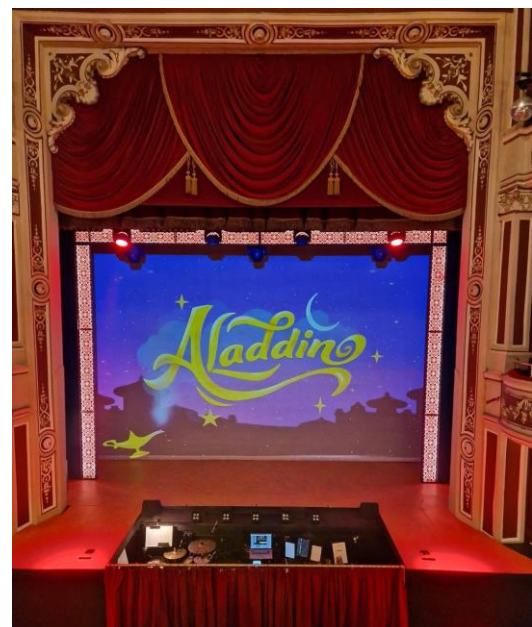

Here is what some of the children had to say:

"I liked the end when the baddy turned into a goody." Elliot (R)

"The sword fight at the end was the best bit ever!" William (R)

"I liked the dancing and the songs." Sophie (Y2)

"My favourite bit was when the Genie came out of the lamp." Vincent (Y1)
