

Dear Parents/Carers,

Comic Relief

What a brilliant day we have all had today. The Ingham Bake Off competition had 35 entries!! There was a massive selection of cakes, cookies and sweet treats and the judging panel had a very tricky job to do this morning. Mrs Jones (who used to teach at Ingham School) and Mrs Stephens (one of our volunteers) had the tough job of selecting a winner from each class. The judges looked at appearance, consistency between the 6 items and of course, taste! A very big thank you to parents for your support with our competition today and our fundraising. The winners have all chosen a book this afternoon.

The children looked fabulous dressed in red, and they all enjoyed a cake at morning break time.

Class	Winner	Item baked	Comments from the judges
Willow	Sidney	Biscuit	Lovely taste, well baked and no soggy bottom! A lovely surprise in the middle!
Rowan	Freddie	Rocky Road	Delicious Rocky road-chewy in the middle and great presentation
Maple	Fern	Sponge	Beautiful light sponge and loved the decoration. All uniform in size. Very tasty.
Oak	Piper	Sponge	Lovely light bake-loved the hundreds and thousands in the cake and the decorations. Very spring like!
