‘At the heart of the Community, with the Community at its heart’

Dear Parents/Carers,

It’s been another busy couple of weeks, with lots happening across the school. We would like to thank everyone for their support during our recent Ofsted inspection, particularly those parents and carers who took the time to speak with the inspectors.

We’ve also enjoyed some wonderful experiences over the past fortnight, including a fantastic visit from poet Paul Cookson and our Remembrance Day service, as well as coming together to support Children in Need.

POET PAUL COOKSON

We were very lucky to welcome poet Paul Cookson into school this week! Paul started the morning with a fantastic whole-school assembly that had children and staff laughing out loud! Paul inspired everyone as he visited each class to help the children develop their poetry writing skills, exploring rhyme, alliteration and creative ways to play with words.

CHILDREN IN NEED

We had a fantatsic day last Friday celebrating Children in Need!

Thank you so much to everyone who donated cakes for our cake sale. The children were brilliant in our penny challenge, with Rowan Class winning with the longest line of coins! We will share the total raised with you soon - it's taking a while to count up the pennies!

ONLINE SAFETY WORKSHOP

We have been asked to share this with our parents.

REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE

Last week our whole school walked through the village to attend a Remembrance Service at Ingham Church, led by Bishop Nigel, who helped the children understand why we mark this important day.

The children were beautifully respectful throughout and an absolute credit to you and the school. A big thank you to All Saints Church, Bishop Nigel and Duncan for playing The Last Post and Reveille, marking the beginning and end of our two-minute silence.
